Chronic Constipation.

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

Mrs. W. H. Veach went to Archie, Mo., Monday for a week's visit.

Miss Virginia Lewis returned Monday to her home in Alma, after a visit in this city with Mrs. Richard Atwood.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a serious attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."

Mrs. Sarah Manfre went to Kansas City Sunday morning for a visit.

Mrs. E. R. Sanders returned Sunday morning to her home in Mayview after a visit in this city with Mrs. T. C. Sanders. Mrs. Sanders accompanied her home.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It.

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.

Miss Gertrude Owen spent Sunday in Wellington.

Mrs. Mary Ayers spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Mrs. John Lindblad went to Kansas City Sunday morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Burley Woodward.

Stomach and Liver Troubles.

No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Miss Margaret Fanolio went to Kansas City Sunday morning for a visit.

Mrs. George Wakeman returned Sunday morning to her home in Odessa, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Abbott, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stier went to Kansas City Sunday morning for a brief visit.

GERMAN BORN M. U.

MAN UPHOLDS DRAFT

Prof. Max F. Meyer of the University of Missouri, one of the most noted psychologists in this country, has written a letter of strong protest against the anti-conscription propaganda of the "People's Council of America for Democracy and Peace" of New York. Professor Meyer, a naturalized American, was born in Germany and spent 19 years in German schools as a student and teacher. Here is the way he feels about the great struggle in which his native and adopted lands are pitted against each other:

"If Germany wins this war fifty years hence its government will rule the American people. I do not want my American children to be put under the yoke which I escaped by coming to America. My hope is that the German government will be overthrown and that the German nation, my relatives and friends will enter an international organization for peace and justice. But the German government, this fearful danger to our future, can be overthrown only by raising armies, not by sitting around the council table of the 'People's Council of America' and 'working for the repeal of the conscription laws.'"

WHAT YOU CAN GROW IN A GARDEN PLANTED NOW

It is not yet too late to grow a good supply of vegetables, even if you have not had a garden so far this year.

There is among amateur gardeners an unwritten tradition that gardens must be planted in the spring. As a matter of fact a fairly complete garden may be planted successfully as late as the middle of July. There are approximately 100 days of growing weather after that date, while the majority of vegetables require less than 90 days to be ready for use. It is a fact that Nature does most of her seed-growing, not in the spring, but during the summer and early fall. One of the chief reasons why summer planting is not carried on more extensively is that, in many sections of the country, we usually have at that time a dry condition of the soil that delays or interferes with germination.

What You Can Plant Now.

The list of vegetables which can still be grown this year is big enough to satisfy any beginner. It includes:

Beans	Endive
Beets	Kohl-Rabi
Cabbage	Lettuce
Cauliflower	Mustard
Brussels Sprouts	Peas
Kale	Radishes
Celery	Ruta-Bagas
Swiss Chard	Spinach
Sweet Corn	Squash (summer)
Turnips

Dr. Still 89 Years Old Today.

Kirksville, Mo., August 6—Dr. Andrew Taylor Still, the founder of Osteopathy, is eighty-nine years old today. The American Osteopathic Association which convenes at Columbus, Ohio, will dedicate the day to appropriate ceremonies in his honor.

When Dr. Still first proclaimed his theories in the seventies, they were received with little credence. When he enunciated such ideas as that disease in the bodily organs was often caused by vertebrae being slightly displaced, causing pressure upon the spinal nerves controlling the function of those organs and that the adjustment of the vertebrae would relieve the nerve interference and result in recovery of the diseased organs, he was ridiculed. Today, his theories have received a general acceptance and his system of practice accorded legal recognition by the various states. He is recognized as being one of humanity's greatest benefactors.

During the past year, funds have been contributed by prominent people from Canada and the United States for the erection of a statue of Dr. Still. This statue was recently unveiled at Kirksville, Missouri, the home of Dr. Still. It is of heroic proportions, and is the work of the noted sculptor, George Julian Zolnay. It represents the "Old Doctor," as he is affectionately called by his followers, as he is often seen, staff in hand, wearing soft, old-fashioned boots which he refuses to discard, tramping the oak covered hills about his home, getting in touch with "things as God made them."

Prof. and Mrs. O. O. McMillin returned Sunday evening to their home in Eugene, Mo., after a visit in this city with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Green.
